

Diane Newton
Authority Governor

Diane has been involved with Hollingworth Primary since 2005 when her eldest son Harry was in Reception class. Lucy and Alex in have also been pupils at the school.

As a past pupil she returned to live in the village in 2001 after a career as HR & Training Manager in Retail in the South East of England.

In 2009 she gained a qualification in Children's Care Learning and Development, after working at a local Playgroup and in the EYFS in the school.

She is currently employed as a Teaching Assistant in an ESBD school in Tameside.

Diane is an active member of the Finance & Personnel Committee, the Curriculum and Standards committee and has been vice-chair of governors since 2013.