Document history

Issue 1: This is a new policy written in 2013.

1 Purpose

This policy reflects the Equality Act 2010 which harmonises and replaces previous legislation, including, the Race Relations Act 1976, Disability Discrimination Act 1995, Gender Recognition Act 2004 and Sex Discrimination Act 1975; the policy therefore supersedes all previous school policies on, Disability, Ethnicity (i.e. Race) and Gender.

Through this policy Hollingworth Primary School will fulfil its public duty to have due regard to the need to eliminate unlawful discrimination, advance equality of opportunity, and foster good relations in connection with disability, ethnicity, gender, religion, sexual identity, and where appropriate, age (applicable to employees only). The guiding principles in this policy refer to all individuals and therefore are equally applicable to pupils, staff, governors and visitors to Hollingworth Primary School.

Legal Framework Duties as identified in the Equality Act 2010 and its schedules. There are nine equality Strands, known as Protected Characteristics.

They are:

- Disability
- Ethnicity (including Gypsy and Traveller groups)
- Gender
- Gender identity and transgender
- Faith, religion and belief
- Marriage and civil partnership
- Sexual orientation (homophobia)
- Pregnancy and maternity
- Age

Each relates to direct discrimination, discrimination by association, discrimination by perception, indirect discrimination, harassment and victimization. Hollingworth Primary School will seek to achieve positive action in respect of the Act.

It should be noted that all schools have a duty to comply with the Equality Act 2010 and the Public Sector Duties, failure to do so could result in legal action against the school's Governing Body. Employees of the school acting on behalf of the Governing Body are also liable for their own discriminatory actions.

Hollingworth Primary School is mindful of the Public Sector Equality Duty which came into force on 5th April 2011.

2 Good Practice

- We strive to achieve a cohesive community and expect that children respect one another and behave with respect to one another, and that their parents feel fully engaged in the school.
- We aim to enhance a wider sense of community locally, as well as in the context of the UK and the world communities.
- We support the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, the UN Convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities, and the Human Rights Act 1998. Through our policies and actions we undertake to ensure that every child and young person is healthy, safe, is able to enjoy and achieve in their learning experience, and is able to contribute to the wider community.

- We consider it prudent and sensible to maintain the practice of logging racist incidents and reporting them to the LA. We monitor and log incidents that discriminate against children and young people or adults in our school with protected characteristics. We also monitor and log bullying incidents directed towards those with special educational needs.

3 Guiding Principles

In fulfilling the legal obligations and establishing our school ethos, we are guided by nine principles.

3.1 Principle 1

All learners are of equal value. We see all learners and potential learners, and their parents and carers, as of equal value whether or not they are disabled, whatever their ethnicity, culture, religious affiliation or origin, whatever their gender or gender identity, whatever their sexual identity.

3.2 Principle 2

We recognise and respect difference. Treating people equally (Principle 1 above) does not necessarily involve treating them all the same. Policies, procedures and activities must not discriminate but must nevertheless take account of differences of life-experience, outlook and background, and in the kinds of barrier and disadvantage which people may face, in relation to:

- disability, so that reasonable adjustments are made;
- ethnicity, so that different cultural backgrounds and experiences of prejudice are recognised;
- gender, so that the different needs and experiences of girls and boys, women and men are recognised;
- sexual identity.

3.3 Principle 3

We foster positive attitudes and relationships and a shared sense of cohesion and belonging. Policies, procedure and activities promote:

- positive attitudes and actions towards disabled people, good relations between disabled and non-disabled people, and an absence of harassment of disabled people
- positive interaction, good relations and dialogue between groups and communities different from each other in terms of ethnicity, culture, religious affiliation national origin or national status, and an absence of prejudice related bullying and incidents
- mutual respect and good relations between boys and girls, women and men and an absence of sexual and homophobic harassment.

3.4 Principle 4

We observe good equalities practice in staff recruitment, retention and development Policies and procedures benefit all employees and potential employees, for example in recruitment and promotion and in continuing professional development:

- whether or not they are disabled
- whatever their ethnicity, culture, religious affiliation, national origin or national status
- whatever their gender and sexual identity and with full respect for legal rights relating to pregnancy and maternity.

3.5 Principle 5

We aim to reduce and remove inequalities and barriers that already exist. In addition to avoiding or minimising possible negative impacts of our policies, we take opportunities to maximise positive impacts by reducing and removing inequalities and barriers that may already exist between:

- disabled and non-disabled;
- people of different ethnic, cultural and religious backgrounds;
- girls and boys, women and men;
- gay people as well as heterosexual.

3.6 Principle 6

We consult and involve widely. People affected by a policy or activity should be consulted and involved in the design of new policies and in the review of existing ones. Consultation involves:

- disabled and non-disabled;
- people of different ethnic, cultural and religious backgrounds;
- girls and boys, women and men;
- gay people as well as heterosexual.

3.7 Principle 7

We address prejudice and prejudice related bullying. We oppose all forms of prejudice which stand in the way of fulfilling the legal duties listed above:

- prejudices around disability and special educational needs;
- prejudices around racism and xenophobia, including those that are directed against religious groups and communities, for example anti-Semitism and Islam phobia, and those that are directed against Travellers, migrants, refugees and people seeking asylum;
- prejudice reflecting sexism or homophobia.

3.8 Principle 8

Society as a whole should benefit Policies and activities should benefit society as a whole, both locally and nationally, by fostering greater social cohesion and greater participation in public life of:

- disabled and non-disabled;
- girls and boys, women and men;
- gay people as well as heterosexual.
